All Demands Satisfied and Diplomatic Relations Resumed. A dispatch from Paris last night says: The foreign office has announced that the sultan has signed an irade for the execution of his engagements with the French government, and that the Franco-Turkish dis-pute is now at an end. Tewfik Pacha, Ottoman minister of foreign affairs, wrote a letter to M. Bapst, councilior of the French embassy in Constantinople, notifying him of the signing of the irade, which, while settling the original French demands, accepts the fresh demands with an additional clause by which the sultan pledges himself to consider as authorized in full right the foundations, extensions, constructions and repairs of the schools and religious and hospital establish-ments which France may desire to carry out if the porte is advised of her intentions and makes no objection within five months. France has thus received full satisfaction, France has thus received full satisfaction, and M. Delcasse, on the receipt of M. Bapst's dispatch this morning, telegraphed him to inform Tewfik Pacha that diplomatic relations had been resumed, and that M. Bapst should consider himself as regularly charged with the affairs of the embassy.

Instructions were also sent to Admiral Caillard, at Mitylene, to re-embark the ma-rines and to return to Greek waters, which is understood to mean the vicinage of the Island of Syra. Admiral Caillard will remain in the Levant some time longer.

M. Constans, the French ambassador, will return to Constantinople very shortly.

The additional clause was conceded at the request of France in order to prevent future difficulties such as the Turkish provincial authorities have often raised either on their authorities have often raised either on their own initiative or in consequence of instigation by the porte.

The Temps, which describes the result as 'a brilliant victory for French diplomacy,"

"The great merit of the government was in being able to restrict its action. Very serious difficulties might have arisen had in being able to restrict its action. Very serious difficulties might have arisen had France departed from her reserve. The favorable disposition shown to our representations abroad has been due to the fact that the civilized world has had opportunity during the last seven years to observe the progress of the anti-European movement in the sultan's councils. Frenchmen, Americans, Austrians, Italians and Britons have all been victimized by the sultan and his councilors. After the Armenian massacres and the successful war with Greece they thought everything was permitted to them. "We hope the sultan will now understand his duties toward the civilized powers and toward his own subjects, unto whom he has always disregarded. Otherwise Europe, which, thanks to the energetic action of France, is now able to reassume at Constantinople the authority she lost seven years ago, will applaud the initiative which the signatory powers of the Berlin treaty are reported to be about to take to extort from the sultan the execution of clauses too long failen into disuse."
